

Dimitar Petrov was born 18 April 1969 in Kyustendil, Bulgaria. His works appear in the Kyustendil Art Gallery, the Stara Zagora Gallery, the Bourgas Gallery as well as private collections in Bulgaria, Germany, Greece, Switzerland, Italy, Japan and France. As an artist, he has a very rich experience in mural painting and participated in multiple solo and group shows in Bulgaria and abroad.

Education:

2010

- Art residence at Cité Internationale des Arts, Paris
- Member of the Union of Bulgarian Artists

1999 : Art residence in India

1996 : Graduated from mural painting from the National Academy of Arts, Sofia

1988 : Graduated from the School of Arts, Sofia

Selected solo shows:

2010

- National Art Center Forum - Sofia
- Bulgarian Cultural Institute - Paris

2009

- Maxim Art Gallery, Sofia
- Forum Gallery, Haskovo

2004: Maxim Art Gallery, Sofia

2003: Murgash Art Gallery, Sofia

2002

- Kavalet Art Gallery, Varna
- Artamonsev Art Gallery, Sofia

2001

- Bulgarian Cultural Institute, Berlin
- Art 36 Gallery, Sofia

1999: Kendros Art Gallery, Plovdiv

1998: Baratsite Art Gallery, Plovdiv

1997: 11 Art Gallery, Sofia

1995: Vitosha Art Gallery, Sofia

1994: Seasons Art Gallery, Sofia

Awards & Honours:

2012: Painting Award, Biennial for contemporary Bulgarian Fine Arts Friends of the Sea, Burgas, Bulgaria

2004: Painting Award, balan Quadriennial, Painting Myths and Legends of My People, Stara Zagora, Bulgaria

2001: First prize for work of art on a wall, Bulgarian Material and Spiritual Culture: Our Identity Along Our European Course, Sofia

1996

- Painting award, Struma 97 exhibition, Pernik, Bulgaria
- Second prize, UNDP Towards a New Bulgaria national competition, Sofia

1995

- Emerging Talent award, Soros Centre for the Arts, International Art Triennial, Sofia
- Comendation, Student International Art Biennial, Skopje, Macedonia
- Painting award, Struma 95 Exhibition, Kyustendil, Bulgaria

1993: First prize, Christmas Competition, Seasons Gallery and the National Academy of Arts, Sofia